John L. Scott Real Estate Appoints New Chief Financial Officer

Bellevue, WASH—J. Lennox Scott, chairman and CEO of John L. Scott Real Estate, announces the appointment of Phil McBride to Chief Financial Officer of the 76-year-old, Bellevue-based company.

“We are very fortunate to have a person of Phil’s caliber joining the John L. Scott team,” said Scott. “Phil’s extensive experience as a financial executive and knowledge of fiscal policy will be an asset to John L. Scott.”

During the past 23 years, McBride has led the financial management of several notable real estate companies, including Coldwell Banker and the Fred Sands Companies, both of which he was credited with achieving significant financial and market-share increases.

“I’m thrilled to be joining the leadership team of such an industry leader and innovator,” said McBride. “By consistently being at the forefront of technology innovations and by keeping a keen focus on customer service, there is no doubt that this is a company that will continue to grow and lead the industry.”

As John L. Scott’s senior financial executive, McBride is responsible for managing its financial policies, practices, procedures, and systems. He directs and oversees the financial activities of all John L. Scott entities, while providing economic outlooks and forecasts for future business growth.
